

WE LOVE

Pass on run-of-the-mill tongs; tag these modern, lightweight resin and stainless-steel servers.

READY TO REGISTER?

Download and print out our comprehensive checklist online. MARTHASTEWARTWEDDINGS.COM

SALAD DAYS

It's time to toss out your garden-variety tableware and ask for a more stylish crop. This tablescape brings citrus hues and colorful blooms to the forefront—with nary a wooden bowl in sight.

1. The inventive design of these vibrant, mouth-blown-glass nesting bowls really stacks up. "Caterpillar" bowls, $150, by Nouvel Studio, from MoMA Design Store, momastore.org.
2. Stripes look chic mixed with an eye-catching pattern. "David Canary" dinner plate, $40, by Marc Jacobs Waterford, from Macy's, macys.com.

3. A plate full of pansies adds a touch of cheery color to your table. "Pensées" coupe salad plate, $66, Bernardaud, 800-884-7775.
4. Mouth-blown glasses in a can't-miss canary. "Colors" tumblers, $14, TableArt, tableartonline.com.
5. Write off wood and opt for a delicately detailed glass bowl. "Isabella" fruit bowl, $215, by Juliska, from Bloomingdale's, bloomingdales.com.

6. Spruce up your table with some sunny, citrusy linens. "Florence" napkins, $22, by Alexandre Turpault, from French Brand, french-brand.com.
7. Sleek flatware goes from the salad course to the main event. "Malmo" flatware, $55 for 5-piece place setting, by Kate Spade for Lenox, from Michael C. Fina, michaelfina.com.

8. Artful hand-blown shakers add whimsy to the table. Salt and pepper set, $40, by Glass Act, from Barneys, barneys.com for stores.
9. Simplicity is served. "Lolo" salad servers in stainless steel and resin, $70, by Teroforma, from Lekker, lekkerhome.com.