Foodservice suppliers provide a look at products designed to make an operator's job easier.

Sorrento Prima Cucina Mozzarella from Lactalis Foodservice melts smoothly without becoming oily and caramelizes beautifully at high temperatures, making it ideal for brick oven pizzas. It comes in several forms: shredded chef cut, shredded medium diced or standard block. www.lactalisfs.com

Teroforma, a producer of high-end modern tableware, is matching designers from around the world with artisans to handcraft their work. The resulting collection of stemware, decanters, tumblers, carafes, pitchers, flatware, dinnerware and linens can give a restaurant a distinctive, stylish edge. www.terofoma.com

Everpure, LLC, announces the launch of the MRS-Envi-RO 600 High Efficiency Reverse Osmosis System. It has up to an 80% efficiency rate, which means significant water savings, while still providing the highest quality premium water. The system's wall mount feature also saves space and can hold up to six gallons. www.Everpure.com

In honor of National Egg Month this May, the American Egg Board is offering free innovative breakfast sandwich recipes to promote the morning meal in restaurants. Included in the collection are Huevos Chimichanga, Fried Egg Burger and Egg Philly Quesadilla. For more information, send an email to: aeb@aeb.org or click "recipes" on www.aeb.org/Foodservice.

The 20th annual Florida Tomato "Best of the Best" Recipe Contest gives students a chance to win $2,000. Supervising instructors are asked to select one recipe to represent their school. Entries will be judged on taste, visual appeal, originality and effective use of fresh Florida tomatoes. Deadline is April 22.
